

Supervisors Can Keep You Union-Free.™

With 6 interactive modules, including the Employee Free Choice Act, the “Supervisors Can Keep You Union Free” eLearning requires learners not to just comprehend the material, but to also put it into practice with interactive exercises. With full compliance reporting, this program requires that every supervisor can demonstrate what they need to do to keep the company union-free.

Time-tested and trusted by hundreds of companies, “Supervisors Can Keep You Union Free” is simply the best Labor Relations training for Supervisors and Managers.

Interactive, engaging and memorable, the program provides the training and the tools needed to make unions unnecessary. It brings into focus the idea that union avoidance is not just about good labor relations - it’s about treating employees well.

Objectives

Once they’ve completed this unique and powerful training program, each and every Supervisor and Manager will have the confidence that comes with knowing how to communicate, how address employee concerns, what they can and cannot say and do (TIPS and FOE rules) and most importantly, how they can help keep the company union free.

Content

Includes 6 Modules:

- How Unions Affect Companies and Supervisors
 - How To Make Unions Unnecessary
 - How To Stop Cardsigning
 - How To Communicate to Employees During a Union Campaign
 - Getting “NO” Votes
- AND a BONUS training module on the Employee Free Choice Act.

Each module incorporates on-camera narration, animation, graphics, engaging interactivity, downloadable resources, full-featured video, navigation, progress tracking, closed-captioning and more.

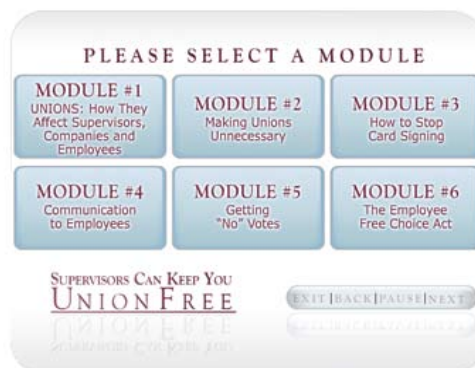

The program can also be customized to meet company-specific needs.

Time to Train

Each self-paced module runs between 12 and 20 minutes, total training time for all 6 modules is approximately 2 hours.

Hosting, Tracking, Reporting

All hosting, tracking of learner progress and reporting of results is included.

Pricing

Cost per learner is as low as $25. Contact Projections for specifics for your company needs.

Updates

Purchase of the eLearning includes all future modifications, including those reflected in currently proposed legislation (EFCA).

DVD Series - Also For Attorneys, Corporate Trainers & Consultants!

As the definitive video resource for training supervisors to understand unions, union organizers, and the issues surrounding a union organizing drive, Supervisors Can Keep You Union Free is the most comprehensive DVD series on the subject available today. With content that has remained unsurpassed, the series has been updated and improved to offer today's companies a robust supervisory training tool that will help maintain a union free status. The five-part series also includes a comprehensive Trainer's Manual.

Not able to use eLearning to train Supervisors and Managers in labor relations? "Supervisors Can Keep You Union Free"© is also available as a 5-DVD training program, complete with interactive facilitator's guide, including handouts, exercises, quizzes and more.

This powerful labor relations video training packs the same information available in the eLearning, into a facilitator-led, discussion-oriented training session.

From TIPS and FOE to common-sense supervisory skills, "Supervisors Can Keep You Union Free" provides training for managers and supervisors that will make unions unnecessary.

Visually engaging, the video series includes an on-camera narrator, dozens of instructional video vignettes, eye-popping graphics and more, to keep your audience engaged and receptive to the information.

You won't find a more robust union avoidance training solution for your managers than "Supervisors Can Keep You Union Free."

Program Descriptions

#1 - "Unions: How they Affect Supervisors, Companies and Employees"

When they find out how much a union can disrupt their work life, supervisors become willing, passionate participants in your union-avoidance strategy.

#2 - "Making Unions Unnecessary"

The best way to win a union campaign is never to have one in the first place.

#3 - "How To Stop Cardsigning"

Educating employees on the legal - and other - implications of signing a union card should be something that comes naturally to your Supervisors and Managers.

#4 - "Communicating to Employees"

Educate managers and supervisors on TIPS and FOE as well as help them understand how important their role as communicator is.

#5 - "Getting 'NO' Votes"

This training module helps supervisors and managers support employees when they are faced with an unwanted union organizing campaign.